

Accession #2010-10 – Container List
Crescent Biscuit and Cracker Company
Donor: Robert Dickey

The following information was written on the package of images donated by the patrons.

Photographs taken by Alma (Meier) Dickey. She worked at Crescent Biscuit and Cracker Co. for forty-two years. Most have identification. Copies were made to enlarge faces.

Alma Dickey on cover of their magazine in 1952.
Copy of newspaper clipping about the company. No citation.

Alma (Meier) Dickey graduated from Davenport High School, as did her son Robert. He then taught 35 years at Central and designed the new "Devil" logo in 1976.

---

Thirteen folders containing about 80 photographic prints. About 35 are original prints that were removed from a scrapbook. The rest are copies, many enlarged. Some identification is present.

Dates provided by donor. Range from late 1920's to mid 1960's.

Most images are of groups at gatherings and parties.