History

According to his obituary [Quad City Times Wed. Aug. 10, 1994, page 2M] Charles Wittenmeyer died in Davenport at age 90 after living in the community since 1933. He was an attorney, an active Republican at the local and national levels, and a member of multiple civic and community organizations including several historical societies. At the time of his death, his wife, Dorothy (Proctor) and his daughter Sheila (Wittenmeyer) Goar survived him. Mrs. Goar was listed as a resident of East Moline at that time.

Charles Wittenmeyer was the grand nephew of Annie (Turner) Wittenmeyer/myer.
