

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

This accession consists of eleven publications of black and white photographs of the residences and business locations listed herein. The images typically measure 7 x 9" on 11 x 14" paper. Each booklet was stapled together with a paper cover. The staples were removed in March 2007 and each booklet was put in an archival binder. Pieces of archive paper were placed between each image.

PART ONE

Scott County Court House

City Directory: between Ripley & Scott & 4th & 5th

Residence of J. M. Parker

City Directory: 1208 Main Street

listed in City Directories from 1868 to 1892-93. Both J.M. and his second wife, Ella, died in 1892.

Beginning in 1894-95 directory lists Charles A. Ficke as the resident.

*Also See Architectural and Historical Survey

In 2007 = Delta Sigma Chi Fraternity, Palmer College of Chiropractic

Brady Street, North from Second.

New York Photo Art Gallery 2nd floor above

M. M. Ormsby, 2nd & Brady

Geo. Vinnedge & Co;s Dry Good House

Willy's Dining Hall

Mrs. Sarah A. Willey, 207 Brady

Rothschild's Clothier, Taylor's oyster parlor

Taylor, 210 Brady

Cameron and Sons Hatters and men's furnishing goods

Trolley/horse and buggies

2007 = The Starting Line restaurant is 217-219 Brady Street

Residence of S. F. Smith

104 East Locust (listed in City Directories from Sept.1880-1903)

Samuel Frances Smith and wife, Mary (Reed) Smith, daughter Anna

Lawyer, city council member 1889-1893, served as Davenport's mayor 1897, involved in local banking, involved with Board of Directors for Davenport Library Association, Ladies' Industrial Relief

Association, Academy of Science (Putnam), and other organizations. Charged and convicted for Larceny by Embezzlement 1904 and sentenced to 11 years in State Prison in Anamosa.

Died in 1909.

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

1908 first listed as owned by Oscar and Mathilda Koehler
House was razed
1940 the "new" Madison Elementary School listed at 116 E. Locust

St. Ambrose Seminary

n side of Locust bet. Scott & Western/518 West Locust Ambrose Hall with trees-no leaves-3 outbuildings on east side Priests standing on porch and large group of presume students east side of steps
One man in light colored shirt and west side of steps
Windows are partially open

Residence of Chas. Beiderbecke

7th, ne cor Western Ave./ 532 West 7th Woman on back porch and one on second floor porch, man leaning against gate of picket fence. Horse and buggy under the portico

In 2007 Owners are Dennis and Pam LaRoque and operated as Beiderbecke Inn Bed and Breakfast

PART TWO

Masonic Temple

City Directory: G. H. Koch, sec. 3d ne. cor. Main

Residence of L. French, M. D.

Horse and buggy in front
City Directory: Lucius French, physician
res 318 East 6th

Mercy Hospital

1888-89 City Directory: Marquette and city limits 1890-91 City Directory: Marquette and Gaston

Residence of F. H. Miller

Woman standing on front porch; child on steps railing
Iron fence all around and sidewalk all along two sides
City Directory: Frank H. Miller (Beiderbecke and Miller-Wholesale Grocers)
res 1527 Brady

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Trinity Church and Guild

City Directory: Brady, sw cor 7th
Rector Rev. D. C. Garrett per 1888-1889
Rector Myron A. Johnson per 1890-91

Residence of J. E. Lindsay

City Directory: James E. Lindsay (Lindsay & Phelps lumber)
res 211 College Avenue

PART THREE

Soldiers' monument

City Directory: Main between 11th and 12th
Soldier standing on either side of monument
Dirt road

Residence of E. S. Carl

Bottom left corner torn off. Slight portion of image missing-
Bottom right corner-small tear. None of image missing.

City Directory: Ernst S. Carl, cashier Citizens National Bank
1888-89 6th, nw. cor. Perry 1890-91 126 E. 6th

Cooks Home for the Friendless

Building-no people in yard.
City Directory: 1888-89 Rockingham rd. s. of 2d 1890-91 Rockingham and Bowditch,
Miss Lile F. Bickford, matron

Residence of Nicholas Kuhnen

City Directory: 1888-89 702 Perry Nicholas Kuhnen, mnfr. of cigars, and dealer in leaf tobaccos
1890-91 Perry nw. cor. 7th

Interior of pumping station no. 1 Davenport Water Co.

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Residence of U. Rorabeck

630 East 15th

Uriah Roraback (U. N. Roberts Co.-U.N. Roberts Estate & Uriah Roraback sash doors and blinds)

Text: Railroads

PART FOUR

Turner Hall

City Directories Turn Halle, Becker Bros. Mngrs.
3rd sw. cor. Scott

Residence of John C. Bills

Behind house on right is building with "Groceries" sign
City Directory 1888-89 Perry, ne. cor. 9th
City Directory 1890-91 1003 Perry

John C. Bills was a lawyer in practice with Carl F. Hass

Birdseye Northeast from Court House Tower

Courthouse located 4th, 5th Ripley and Scott

Residence of J. B. Phelps

John B. Phelps (Lindsay & Phelps, lumber) 1358 4th Avenue [described as "from Bridge Ave. to Mississippi Ave. 4 n. river]

Immaculate Conception Academy

Corner 8th & Main

Residence of W. P. Halligan

711 Farnam

Woman and child standing on steps

William P. Halligan (Wm. P. Halligan & Co.-coal, with Ross Woodmansee)

Text: Educational Advantages

PART FIVE

Davenport High School

Between 7th & 8th and R.I. and Iowa

F. E. Stratton, principal

This building razed and new building built between Harrison and Main in 1905

Residence of Anthony Burdick

105 College Avenue

Anthony Burdick was president of Davenport Savings Bank

Second Street West from Brady

Isaac Rothschild Clothing & Merchant Tailoring on right corner

102 & 104 W. 2nd

Ryan Block on left with J. B. Morgan, dentist and the Boston Store

Ryan Block-101, 103, 105 W. 2nd

James B. Morgan, dentist, room 2 Ryan Block

Boston Store, Harned, Pursel & Vonmaur, 101 & 103 W.2nd

Residence of Bishop W. S. Perry

William Stevens Perry, bishop Episcopal Diocese of Iowa

Residence on Brady, nw corner 11th

Pumping Station No. 2 and Reservoir, Davenport Water Co.

Children lined up along fence with one adult male; 2 adults by station

House visible across the reservoir

Residence of F. E. Stratton

Frederick E. Stratton, principal High School

Resides 1314 Farnam

Text: The Press (lower right corner broken off, but no text missing)

PART SIX

The St. James Hotel

Main, nw cor Front
Gough B. Grant, Propr. Per 1888-89
Birdsall & Ferrall, proprs. Per 1890-91
People standing out in front
Horse and wagon on right, may be able to see words on side of wagon when enlarged via scan

Text in Part 7 states: "The St. James, located at the intersection of Main and Front Streets, and opposite the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Depot, is one of the best hotels in the section in point of care and cuisine. With a full view of the river from the levee, the temperature is always as cool as anywhere in the city. Containing seventy-two rooms, lighted by electricity, with a pleasant and cosy office, all cared for by experienced and careful help, the house is truly the traveling man's home. The dining-room large and airy, presided over by skilled help is a very attractive portion of the house.

Residence of Dr. W. O. Kulp

"Hillside" -- not listed as a street in Street Index
William O. Kulp, dentist
Man seated on front porch
Horse and buggy parked by side porch

Birdseye North-west from U. S. Arsenal

Bridge visible

Residence of E. S. Crossett

309 Mississippi Ave.
Edward S. Crossett, lumber man

Plant of the Davenport Glucose Co.

Rockingham Road, sw corner Division

Residence of J. W. H. Baker, M. D.

427 East 14th St.
John W. H. Baker, physician

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Stone at street side where would get out of buggy says BAKER on it; horse and buggy parked in front; large trees nearly obscure the house

Text : The Churches

PART SEVEN

Der Demokrat Block

207 West 3rd , Henry Lischer, publisher
P. F. Collier, Publisher
209 West 3rd, George F. Pepper, manager
Can see people looking out 2nd story windows
Sign on far left door "Clausen, Architect" 205 West 3rd Fred G. Clausen, architect

Residence of H. H. Andresen

726 West 6th Street
Cashier, German Savings Bank
1888-89 lists him also as President Davenport Glucose Mnfg. Co.

Plant of the Amazon Vinegar Co.

Foot of Centennial
Amazon Vinegar and Pickling Works, Benjamin A. Raphael, secretary
People standing outside by railroad tracks; 2 children on tracks; man in doorway

Wholesale and Retail Stationery, Book and Toy Establishment of John Berwald

214 West 2nd Street
1888-89 "bookseller and stationer"
1890-91 "steamship & subscription newspaper agency" very cool-storefront with bicycles, posters for Red Star Line, string hammocks hanging; a boy and two men on sidewalk in front, one man in 2nd floor window.

Residence of Louis Ochs

1888-89 11th, ne corner Perry
1890-91 208 East 11th
House beside and behind are partially visible.
Can see the wooden planks on the sidewalk

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Residence of F. B. Sharon

212 East 6th Street
Fred B. Sharon, publisher of Iowa Catholic Messenger (newspaper)

Text: The Hotels; Public Institutions

PART EIGHT

The Davenport Cathedral

1890-91 City Directory: Main, between 11th & 12th
W. S. Perry, Bishop
1888-89 City Directory it is called "Grace" Cathedral
Main, between 11th & 12th
W. S. Perry, Bishop

Residence of August Steffen

420 West 6th
August Steffen, dry goods and notions, etc. wholesale and retail Shows house atop embankment with elaborate steps leading up to it. Man seated in chair on front porch at top of steps. At base, sign "A. S. 1881" within brick

Kemper Hall

Main, nw corner 11th
Part of Griswold College, diocesan college of the Episcopal Church in Iowa Taken from corner-fire hydrant visible. Students in uniform standing on lawn in front of building. Adult males, two adult females, one child standing on porch

In 2007 still standing and used by Central High School

Residence of G. W. Cable

1219 Brady
George W. Cable, president Cable Lumber Co.

Third and Brady Block

Businesses, horses and buggies, many people standing on sidewalks.
Painted on upper level, side of building "Richards Drug Store"

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Residence of G. A. Koester

324 East 4th
Gustave A. Koester
Child standing on plank sidewalk, man standing by gate behind picket fence, dog on porch

Text: The Public Library, Cook's home for the Friendless, Mercy Hospital

PART NINE

First National Bank

1888-89 2nd, southwest corner Main Street (both First Nat'l and Dav Svgs. Bank)
1890-91 201 West 2nd Street
Corner view showing front door with "Bank" written above. Sign on upper right of first floor says "Davenport Savings Bank". Man standing on steps there. Clock above third floor window above door.
Can see "Ochs' Sons ..state Agency on building to left (John Ochs Sons, 126 Main-land and real estate) and "George. ..Groceries" on building to right.

Residence of Bishop H. Cosgrove

630 East 7th Street
Right Rev. Bishop Henry Cosgrove, Diocese of Davenport

Art Rooms of Jarvis White & Co.

320 Brady Street
2-story building --Along top says "Established 1874"
Photograph Studio
Jarvis White & Co. Successors to Hastings, White & Fisher.
Has displays of photographs of different sizes in the windows.
Business on left sign reads "...s Sons."
Business on right sign reads "Adams' ... 322"

Residence of A. P. Doe

1406 Perry
Alonzo P. Doe, owns boots and shoes wholesale business Board planks in sidewalk clearly visible. House surrounded by fence.

U. S. Government Arsenal

Building with "1865" above doorway, which appears to be bricked over. 3 story building with taller tower

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Residence of Francis Ochs
729 West 6th Street

PART TEN (Missing back paper cover-seems dirtier than others)

Pumping Station No. 1 Davenport Water Co.

Shows two story building with large stack and several small stacks. Seems to be rear or side of building-Set on a hill. Lumber in foreground.
No people.

Residence of A. Priester

1888-89 711 West 6th
1890-91 811 West 7th

Adolph Priester, assistant cashier Citizens National Bank
House and yard with large plant, interesting lawn chair

Plant of the Cable Lumber Company

Front, foot of Spring Street
George W. Cable, president
Shows lumber stacked up with bridge, railroad tracks, river also in view.
Can see houses and buildings along riverfront.

Residence of Dr. E. H. Hazen

1888-89 Taney and city limits
1890-91 1620 Taney [Taney described as from Hennepin to Border, 9 n. river]
Dr. Edward H. Hazen, physician, surgeon, oculist and aurist

Barrell factory of H. Bremer & Son

1801 Rockingham Road
cooperage, Henry and Henry Jr. Bremer 2 buildings with road running beside. May be people sitting/standing in 2nd floor window and lower front corner of building.
Small outbuilding on left side with "Coal Yard" sign on top and a man standing not too far from.

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

EXTRA PART

Plant of the H. F. Brammer Manufacturing Co.

1888-89 corner 2nd and Ainsworth
1890-91 south side Rockingham road, foot Ainsworth
Henry F. Brammer
Shows lumber stacked high. Several buildings can be seen in the background. One man is standing in the center-very small.

Residence of A. F. Hirschle

City Directories only list A. J. Hirschl, lawyer, residing at 532 West 6th Street
Shows house atop hill with stair steps and fence leading up to it. There are three youngsters standing on the porch.

Plant of Lindsay & Phelps, Lumber Manufacturers.

Mill located in East Davenport owned by James E. Lindsay and John B. Phelps Lumber stacked with buildings in background. Can see logs in river on left side of image. Several men in photo, one appearing to have been posed, the other walking

Wholesale and Retail Dry Goods Store of August Steffen

226-230 West 2nd Street
dry goods and notions, etc., wholesale and retail Three story building with "A. Steffen 1873" at top.
Other signs say "A. Steffen Wholesale"
'Ernst Claussen, Attorney at Law"
1888-89 directory states he is mayor and lawyer
230 West 2nd Street
"Warnebold Bros."
1888-89 directory states Edward & Herman C. Warnebold
226 West 2nd, retail grocers
People present in image but not posed. There are ladies crossing the street and one on the sidewalk with umbrella. A younger person is walking in front of the doorway. There are several men walking, wearing bowler hats.

Stables of Charles A. Ives

1888-89 directory Ives is listed as conductor C. M. & St. P. Ry.
1890-91 directory states Livery, feed and boarding stable 228 East 3rd

Accession #2005-09
Davenport Picturesque and Descriptive
Complete in Ten Parts
American Art Publishing Co.
1889

Range 42 Section 4

Two-story building with signs that say "Livery and Feed Stable"
"Chas. A. Ives."

"C. A. Ives' Livery Feed & Sale St..." on side of upper story.

Horses and buggies in image.

Men standing in doorway.

Beside railroad track